- Selected advanced repertoire of standard wind ensemble and concert band literature, along with contemporary 20th/21st-century works from composers of varying diverse backgrounds.

- Created curriculum for weekly rehearsals, syllabi for the wind ensemble, and presented for various donors and other significant figures as part of our outreach initiatives.
- Mentored a cohort of 20 Music Advancement Fellows from The Juilliard School, through sharing teaching techniques, social-emotional learning methods, and modeling successful leadership in a teaching setting each week through rehearsals and reflection.

Assistant Band Director

Riverdale Country School, The Bronx, NY

2025 – Present

- Recruited students from the over 1,300 student-body population in order to increase the numbers and retention of the band and orchestra programs through curriculum development, exploratory learning, and outreach initiatives for visibility amongst the community.
- Taught 6th – 12th grade classes from preparatory-advanced level of students.
- Increased visibility and recruitment from both students and faculty through involvement in affinity groups ranging from Latinx-led and LGBTQ+-led events and groups through collaboration with the office of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging.

Founding Conductor

New Jersey Symphony Youth Orchestra – Bridge Ensemble - Newark, NJ

2025 – Present

- Founding conductor of an intermediate-level symphony orchestra, as part of an existing expansion, and need to create an ensemble that supports students matriculating into the advanced orchestras.
- Conducted a 45-piece symphony orchestra to include arrangements of both standard orchestral literature and contemporary works by modern composers and arrangers.
- Created a curriculum that develops the necessary fundamental skills for students ages 10 – 18, covering a range of articulations, rhythms, dynamics, and technical dexterity.

Wind Ensembles Director

Baltimore Symphony Orchestra's OrchKids, Baltimore, MD

2023 – Present

- Conducted over 150 students across several schools throughout Baltimore City and Baltimore County, amongst 6 different wind ensembles and a symphony orchestra, through programmatic cycles, ranging from standard to contemporary literature.

- Founding conductor of a preparatory wind ensemble for students who have been playing their instrument for a year or oftentimes less, teaching weekly fundamental techniques amongst standard literature on the following instruments: flute, oboe, clarinet, alto saxophone, trumpet, french horn, trombone, and a variety of percussion instruments.
- Developed curriculum to reinforce rhythm, sight-reading, intonation, dexterity, and various articulation styles for students ages 5 – 18 amongst all large string and wind ensembles.
- Mentored students through initiatives that created student leaders in each ensemble, oftentimes through conducting, and other duties.
- Featured conductor for conferences such as the Teaching Artists Training Institute and the League of American Orchestras, along with conducting in outreach events, including a performance alongside Marin Alsop to over 2000+ audience members in the Myerhoff Concert Hall, featuring the OrchKid's Symphonic Wind Ensemble.
- Presented rehearsals and performances specifically for donors and other significant figures, along with representing both the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra and OrchKids, as an artistic leader speaking for the organization at various stewardship events.
- Led a summer program each year, which involved teaching instrumental classes to all stringed instruments to students from the preparatory to advanced levels, alongside facilitating a collective composition ensemble, chamber music, and conducting 3 different wind ensembles at varying levels.
- Managed a cohort of 20 teaching artists from various winds/brass/percussion instruments, in supplying teaching tactics and curriculum, along with assigning material to instruct the students in the ensemble through weekly sectionals.
- Implemented programming structures, social-emotional learning tools, including administrative duties such as reviewing artistic budget, implementation times, curriculum creation, logistics meetings, and production.
